"You and I both know nothing good's ever gonna happen between us."

Alannah Darque waited over ten years to reunite with the love of her life. Thirteen years, two months, and eleven days to be precise. Unfortunately, when Jeremy finally came home from university it was with a girl on each arm and she all but lost hope that they'd ever be together.

Until one night in a club they share a soul-searing kiss that belies their years of hidden passion. Now, Alannah is determined to find out what really went wrong all those years ago and why Jeremy has spent so long denying their love.

This is a complete, standalone short story with no cliffhanger. Contains a steamy love scene.
