Harriett (The Tipton Hollow Series Book 1) Rebecca King

The first meeting of the Tipton Hollow Psychic Circle doesn't exactly go as planned, especially when one of its members suddenly dies in the middle of Harriett's parlour floor.

The arrival of the handsome Detective Inspector from Great Tipton throws Harriett's world into turmoil, and the instant attraction she feels for him shocks her more than the unusual messages she receives at the séance. Unfortunately, with unexplained deaths, sinister threats and disappearing villagers, their rather unusual courtship does little to keep her safe and they are soon embroiled in a race against time to uncover the identity of the person, or persons, responsible for the murders before Harriett becomes the next victim.

Come and meet the members of Tipton Hollow's most spooky circle, in this exciting new Victorian romantic mystery series with a difference. Harriett, Beatrice, Tuppence, Constance, Eloisa and Babette have their work cut out for them as they try to evade the gossips, angry spirits, and their persistent admirers who will do anything to capture their hands in marriage! Being outrageously compromised, almost run over by a runaway carriage, kidnapped, arrested for murder and shockingly propositioned are the least of their concerns with the parsimonious Miss Smethwick on the loose. But does she have her own secrets she needs to keep hidden? More importantly, who is hiding in the shadows attempting to thwart the psychic circle uncovering the truth? Are there really such things as ghosts?
