Dimensions of Learning - Trainer's Manual (2nd Edition) Robert J. Marzano, Debra J. Pickering

The Trainer's Manual includes an overview of the Dimensions of Learning program, suggestions for organizing different levels of training, detailed scripts for conducting training, and numerous blackline masters for overheads. This volume has been updated to reflect the 2nd edition of the Dimensions of Learning Teacher's Manual: the scripts and overheads have been significantly modified, and new training activities and overheads have been added. 623 pages (8 ½" x 11") in 3-ring binder with 18 sections divided by tabs. The premise of Dimensions of Learning--an instructional framework founded on the best of what researchers and theorists know about learning--is that five types, or dimensions, of thinking are essential to successful learning. These are positive attitudes and perceptions about learning, thinking involved in acquiring and integrating knowledge, thinking involved in extending and refining knowledge, thinking involved in using knowledge meaningfully, and productive habits of mind. Dimensions of Learning is a valuable tool for reorganizing curriculum, instruction, and assessment.
