Violation of Faith Jeannie Hall

Lynea Kreig has spent the past three years being invisible. After running with her little sister halfway across the country—away from her abusive cult leader husband—she seeks nothing but safety and anonymity. When she's offered a job which would keep her close to her sister, Lynea can't refuse. But the job puts her in close quarters with Professor Brennan Gage, a man bent on exposing cult leaders to the public. If he discovers her secret, he could destroy the life she's worked so hard to build. Over time, she finds herself drawn to Brennan's klutzy kindness. He tells her he loves her, but happiness for Lynea could never be so simple—especially once her husband appears at the front door...
