By Alpha softballgirl on March 13, 2014

Two girls, end of the college, wanting to have good time. But for Julie and Kim good time will turn out very bad. Which one of them will survive a terrible ordeal worldly Kim or sheltered Julia? Will someone come to their rescue?

I was at the edge of the seat the whole time reading this story. The author done a wonderful job and wrote intense and thrilling story featuring very interesting characters.

Unreal is interesting read full of suspense with very satisfying end. I recommend it to all of readers who like good dark action thrillers.

By Michelle Lynn Randall on March 12, 2014

I really enjoyed this book. The only reason I gave 4 stars is because of the minor typos. The book had a movie thriller feel which I totally liked and the book a quick read. Julie and her friend think that their trip to explore the country will be filled adventure and excitement but their trip actually turns horrible when they stop at a small town diner. Their day seems to pick up when they met two men but looks are definitely deceiving...

Warning: For Adult's 18+ only for strong sexual content and violence. Very graphic scenes. You have been warned!
