THOSE WHO DON'T LEARN FROM HISTORY ARE FATED TO GET A GOOD LAUGH FROM IT!

→This book is far from being your standard history book. Instead, it is a hilariously cynical – and factual – treatment of major historical events and decisions of the last 150 years. You'll learn what happens when: • Napoleon III falls into Bismarck's traps (1870) • Joffre, the supreme French commander, wins the Battle of the Marne (1914) • Crazy Hitler crushes the French Army (1940) • Mannerheim, leader of Finland, successfully ghts the entire Red Army (1939-1940) • Stalin wins the Battle of Moscow (1941-1942) • Lincoln almost loses the entire Civil War at the fi rst Battle of Bull Run (1861) • Sharon wins the Second Intifada (2001-2004) Prof. Michael Harsgor, the famous historian, along with Dr. Ehud Fuchs, a decision theory expert, are two joyfully critical gentlemen who have no problem smashing these historical and hysterical characters; in fact, they seem to enjoy it. Their conclusions are as fascinating as they are ruthlessly
