Thy Kingdom Come - Daily Devotions for Advent Robert Hereth

“The Kingdom of God” is Jesus’ most frequently used metaphor—a metaphor still applicable to current maladies like economic recession, natural catastrophe, or ongoing war. In this booklet, Robert Hereth reflects upon the numerous and various ways Jesus uses the term to assert that God rules, and how God rules. Since we both strive to live in the Kingdom now and also hope for its final consummation, it reflects the weeks of Advent, when we await our King who came at Christmas—our King who will come again.
