To walk down the road that will safely lead you through eternity, you need a compass that's reliable and will work in any weather conditions, all the time. Fortunately, on the road of life, that tool is available by studying and following the Bible. In this guidebook you'll learn how GPS Evangelism, which stands for God's Plan of Salvation, can change your life. Get the tools you need to; evaluate whether evangelism is optional; mobilize your church to participate in outreach efforts; maintain a commitment to faithful service; and; help more people discover the Word of God. With a GPS program in your own church, you can plant the seeds of hope and caring, and enlarge God's kingdom by leading others to His side. This aggressive and organized system can help small, mid-sized, and large churches, and it's time for it to be implemented on a larger scale. Energize your church with the spirit of God, and help others find their way to Christ with GPS Evangelism.
