A Boys of Fall novel Carter Shaw isn't a man anyone would mistake for a good guy. He's has always been intense, up for anything and fearless —on the football field, when wearing his badge and in the bedroom. But pleasure is never mixed up with love. His unstable upbringing was more than enough to scare him off commitments for good. Until he meets Lacey Andrews. A true do-gooder, heart and soul, Lacey is the only woman to ever make Carter wish he was a better man. It's probably a good thing his best friend fell in love with her first. Even when Garrett is shot and dies in the line of duty, Carter knows he can't give her everything she wants and needs. Until she shows up on his doorstep in nothing but a trench coat and pink lingerie. Now there may be a few things he can offer... Losing her fiancé has only proven how short life is and Lacey doesn't want to miss another moment of happiness. Carter might have turned down the chance at the long term threesome she and Garrett wanted, but she knows he hasn't forgotten the deep friendship or the one hot night the three of them shared. Carter is the only one who can make her feel alive again. And while her heart will always hold Garrett's memory, Lacey is ready to prove Carter will never have to share her...even with the ghost of another.
