What is tithing? Where did the concept of tithing come from? Is it biblical to tithe? Why are so many pastors talking about it? Should I be tithing? In this book, "And You Shall Know the Truth About Tithing", you will find the answers to these and any other questions you may have about the Christian practice of tithing. Many confusing teaching will be delved into and clarified. The author has included every scripture in the Bible on tithing and carefully explained each of them in great detail, as well as how you can apply them in your own life. This book will challenge you to think about everything you've been "told" & "taught" about tithing. It will take you through each scripture on tithing in order to make your beliefs your own, rather than second hand information. This is a fresh look at tithing & giving through the eyes of scriptures. You will come away with a clear understanding of the biblical practice of tithing and giving, feeling motivated to give to God's kingdom for a purpose.
