T1-Ie Mayor OF Troy (Classic Reprint) Arthur Thomas Quiller-Couch

Years ago I promised myself to write a treatise on the lost Mayors of Cornwall dignitaries whose pleasant fame is now night, recalled only by some neat byword or proverb current in the Delectable (or as a public speaker pronounced it the other day, the Dialectable) Duchy. Thus you may hear of the Mayor of Falmouth, who thanked God when the town gaol was enlarged; the Mayor of Market Jew, sitting in his own light; the Mayor of Tregoney, who could read print upside-down, but wasnt above being spoken to ;the Mayor of Calenick, who walked two miles to ride one ;the Mayor of East Looe, who called the King of England Brother. Everyone remembers the stately prose in which Gibbon records when and how he determined on his great masterpiece, when and how he completed it. It was at Rome :on the i5th of October, 1764, as I sat musing amidst the ruins of the Capitol, while the bare-footed friars were singing vespers in the Temple of Jupiter, that the idea of writing the Decline and Fall of the City first started in my mind.
