The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt: A Study Guide (Volume 40) Ray Moore M.A.

Ray Moore's Study Guides provide insights into demanding texts. The Goldfinch is a Pulitzer prize winning international bestseller. However some readers seem to love it whilst others hate it. This makes for great discussions and Ray Moore's Study Guide will help any reader gain deeper understanding of this lengthy text. It includes: - An Introduction, containing an annotated list of characters, themes, setting, narrative voice, - Each chapter/section is accompanied by a commentary and guiding questions for readers to gain a deeper understanding, stimulate thought, discussion and interpretation, - Ideas for groupings for reading group discussion, feedback, and presentation; - Definitions of key literary terms; - Two graphic organizers for reader's notes. This Study Guide is designed to help individuals and reading groups to engage with a text that asks provocative questions about the place of art in life.
