Arthur and his friends are noblemen disguised as traveling players. Raising an army in secret, while dodging mercenaries and cabbages alike, isn't easy. Neither is keeping secrets from the curious young woman he happens to be falling in love with. She thinks he's just an actor with a shady past, and if he's to have any hope of a future, he can't put her right. Between sword fights and scene changes, life is about to get interesting.
