In Bad Company K Southby De Lorenz

Inside the male dominated world of the Outlaw Motorcycle Club, families do exist. Max, an ordinary woman caught up in an extraordinary situation, is the widow of a gang leader and as a solo mother she struggles to protect her family from gang politics and violence after she is betrayed by those she believed she could trust. The outlaw biker fraternity and their families are held together by camaraderie, the love for a Harley Davidson, and the freedom of the ride, and it is built on rules of duty, honour, trust and loyalty, when those rules are broken, you know that you are IN BAD COMPANY.
