Popular Florida author Sandy Mason releases 'Sailor Take Warning', the third in his series of Johnny Donohue Adventures. Following his beautiful beat reporter girlfriend Maria deFlores, Johnny gets involved in another risky adventure. In the heart of St. Petersburg, an experienced tour boat captain is found strangled to death aboard his sailboat. His murder leads back to events in Newport Rhode Island that took place years ago, during the America's Cup trial races. They also point their way back to Johnny's hometown in Westhampton Beach where his tightly knit family helps him dig deeper into a confusing set of clues and events. Follow Johnny Donohue and his ex-cop, war hero buddy Lonnie Turner as they work the case and find themselves prowling into the seedy world of Tampa's world famous strip clubs. Their persistence finds them entangled in the middle of a dangerous maze of money laundering, drug dealing, sex cruises and human trafficking. Meanwhile, Johnny's love life is plunged into uncertainty as Maria wins a prestigious award in investigative journalism and heads to California on a major assignment. 'Sailor Take Warning' is filled with drama, humor and suspense. An array of colorful characters populate Johnny's world. Follow them as they weave themselves in and out of his life at Dolphin Cove Marina.
