Every woman dreams of a good life, a happy home, meaningful relationships, joyous celebrations ... but do we know the way to make those blessings materialize? How often do we feel our deepest desires bottled up in our hearts, hoping that God hears our silent yearning? There is a better way to draw down blessings for us and for all Israel. When you want something, pray for it! This precious volume of prayers, in English and Hebrew, drawn from the words of Rav Noson's Likutey Tefilot, gives expression to the hopes and dreams of each Jewish woman. Organized by topic, here are prayers to sing with, to cry over, to believe in and to soar with. Use them to discover parts of yourself you never knew existed, and to clarify the values you hold dear. Above all, let them open your heart to receive the greatest blessing: a new closeness to the Provider of all. Look at the prayers presented here, and let them open your heart. - Rebbetzin Tziporah Heller "The difference between most prayers and the prayers in Between me and You is the difference between writing a letter and engaging in a conversation. - Sara Yoheved Rigler
