A cup of tea shared with another person is known to create a new karma each time. So next time you have a cup of tea with someone, have good thoughts, and share good words. There are many stories of how tea brings people together. When you visit friends - tea and snacks are probably the most common offering. A cup of tea bonds friendships and heals differences. A guest rejecting an offer of a cup of tea may even hurt their feelings. The ultimate bonding is sharing a cup of tea - between two people - albeit in different saucers. When you visit a commercial establishment, as a sign of respect for the customer, tea is offered.
