Mary was tired of the same Christmas in Texas where it was hot and not magical at all. After breaking things off with her boyfriend she needed a change. She wanted to spend Christmas in a magical village that looked like something you would see on a Christmas card. She found it in Switzerland. She moved into a bed and breakfast lodge in the small village surrounded by forest and mountains. It was everything she had hoped for from the hot chocolate, to snow, to Christmas cookies. However she was not expecting that the dark mysterious man that chopped wood on the grounds and was the most attractive man she had ever seen, had a magical secret. He was in fact a mythical creature of sorts; only Mary thought it could be her imagination. Just when he has opened up to her, Mary's exboyfriend shows up and tries to seduce her back into his world. Will she pick the stable life or an unsure magical one with a man that is something more than just a man?
