The Gunman (The Thorntons Book 1) Kerbit J. Little

The Civil War has ended. Jim and Noble are two rebels who set out from San Francisco searching for gold. While helping a prospector recover his claim, they encounter love, guilt, danger and violence. They come up against a dying assassin who wants to go out in a blaze of glory and a psychotic mayor with a terrible secret. They help a young farmer whose abusive father becomes set on killing Jim. The Gunman is a story of friendship which illustrates how sacrifice, courage and love can ultimately triumph over evil. It will make you laugh, move you to tears and leave you with hope.
