Life, Death, and Eternity (Volume 1) Misty McBride

Things aren't always what one would expect. That was never more evident than in the life of recently widowed Alura Asher. When Alura went out to a club with her friend Miranda she didn't expect to meet the dashing, young man Micah who seemed to remind her of someone. In fact, the more that she was around Micah, the more that she had memories of them being together. But, these memories weren't in this lifetime, they were in another day and age altogether. Could it be possible that reincarnation existed? If that were true, then could this man Micah be the love of her life, her one true soulmate that had been attempting to reconnect with her over centuries? Even if all of this were true and they did find each other again, not all things are possible when adversarial forces are out to keep them apart. Can Alura discover her past and reconnect with Micah before she loses him and herself forever?
