Position and Plan of the Book. This is the Second Book in the Grade Series of Spellers. It continues the simple yet carefully matured plan followed in the First Book of the series, with such enlargement as the increased ability and greater need of the pupils justifies. Taken together the two books offer a complete and systematic course covering the first eight years of school work. The words are grouped in such a way as to render the lessons easy, impressive, and helpful to the pupil who is striving to master the many difficulties of English spelling. That there are difficulties we all know. The chief of these which should be had in mind by both teacher and pupil are: first, there are many symbols for the same sound; second, many sounds are represented by the same letter; third, many sounds are represented by the same diphthong; fourth, doubled consonants and single consonants are sounded alike at the end of syllables or between vowels; fifth, some letters, both vowels and consonants, represent no sound when used in words. It is believed that the lessons in this Grade Series of Spellers are so arranged as to differentiate these difficulties, and the words so grouped as to illustrate them. The result is that many of the usual obstacles are removed from the path of the pupil, who, as he advances, not only acquires facility in spelling, but also gains an insight into the derivation, the growth, the forms, and the beauties of the English language. Flexibility of the Course.
