Sarah Hudson refuses to believe she's a witch regardless of what her aunt says. She prefers to call it psychokinesis. Sarah has been an outcast since her early teens because of her power. Labeling herself a witch would only make her life even more unbearable. But on the first day of school, a new boy named Zane Miner recognizes her power and decides that he's going to take her under his wing, whether she likes it not. Since he's gorgeous and just as powerful as she is, she's very tempted to let him. But her pull towards another loner threatens her new relationship. As Sarah starts to accept her power she begins to realize that there are many people who would use her and break her into darkness. She must protect herself from her aunt and from a dark destiny that's determined to claim her. Sarah must turn to her new friends if she's going to survive and find the freedom and happiness she's always craved. Freak of Nature is a Young Adult Paranormal book that reaches across all realms of experience and life. The unpredictable plot twists and exciting suspense and romance will have readers from all ages captivated.

- If you like the Twilight books by Stephanie Meyer and paranormal romance, you'll love this one. It's clean, but still has enough romance to keep you up until 2 am reading. Perfect book for cold spooky nights. - SFG
- I have to say... it was truly amazing. The characters are captivating and interesting. The cliffhanger ending surprised me. I didn't do my research! Now I can't wait for the next book to see what happens. The story flowed so well I didn't want to put the book down. - Heidi
