The Confessions of a Deliveryman (Or How to Survive a Mid-Life Crisis by Driving a Van) Lee Ball
In the early nineties Lee Ball graduates from drama college with dreams of winning Oscars and Baftas and the attention of beautiful women. But fate has other plans. Two years later he is diagnosed with epilepsy and the dream comes to a premature end. Over the next decade he can do little more than drift from one dead end job to another as former acting colleagues rise to the dizzy heights of success. Then, in his forties, married with children and a rather large mortgage - but the epilepsy under control - he gets a job as a delivery driver. Through the daily ritual of work and the people he meets each day he begins to see that life isn't as bad as he first thought. This is one man's battle with a mid-life crisis. With hilarious results!!!
