This article examines Dinesh D'Souza's summer 2014 documentary, America. In 2012, D'Souza's first film, 2016: Obama's America, became a box office hit, earning $33.5 million and becoming the second most successful documentary of all time. While that film criticized Barack Obama, the new movie imagines what the world would be like if America had lost the Revolutionary War. Find out what the film is about, and how D'Souza's personal legal problems have added extra controversy to its July 4 release. [Article: 1,712 words]
