Detective Gen Delacourt's life is perfect ... until a ceiling collapses on her fiancé during an earthquake. The resulting head injury leaves him tormented and remote, with little recollection of their relationship. All he remembers is the image of a woman in a window and the desperate sound of her sobbing. Frantic and alone, Gen turns to fellow private investigator Devlin Boyle for help. Together they unearth the mystery of Mack's presence in the mansion, why he is now terrified of the dark, and who was weeping. Will Mack recover?
